Director's Report June 2015

Summer Reading Program Kickoff, Central Library

DIRECTOR'S OFFICE

Kickoff of Mayor's Summer Reading Club

The Library kicked off the Mayor's Summer Reading Club with a media event on Friday, May 29 at 9:15 a.m. Mayor Taylor attended the event and delivered remarks. The event took place at the Children's Area on the 3rd floor of Central Library.

Agreement with the Monte Vista Historical Association

The Library Director received a letter from the Monte Vista Historical Association suggesting mediation as a means to address the decision by the Library Board of Trustees to terminate the agreement with the Association for use of space at the Landa Branch Library. The Library Director, in consultation with the City Attorney's Office, responded that mediation was not appropriate as no dispute existed between the Library and Monte Vista Historical Association. The Library Director offered to meet with the Association to further explain the Board's decision and respond to questions.

The Library Director Ramiro Salazar was invited to the June 9 Monte Vista Historical Association Board Meeting and spoke about the Library Board's recent decision. He responded to numerous questions and reminded the Association that agreement was scheduled to expire July 14, 2015 with the caveat that the Association would have an additional 30 days to relocate.

Related to this, the Monte Vista Historical Association also sent a letter on June 9 to Library Board Chair Jean Brady, requesting consideration to allow representatives of the Monte Vista Historical Association to present a proposal to the Library Board.

Open Records Request regarding Agreement with Monte Vista Historical Association

The Library received a sixth open records request from Timothy Turner, property owner in the Monte Vista Historical neighborhood, requesting documents related to the Library's agreement with the Monte Vista Historical Association. The requests specifically refers to documents and records related to the $3,000 annual pledge from Monte Vista Historical Association as provided in the agreement, as well as records of certificates related to insurance requirements as required in the agreement. The Library is coordinating with the City Attorney's Office and will respond to the information request within the required timeframe.

Library Partners with DoSeum

The San Antonio Children's museum opens in its new space on June 6 with a new name: DoSeum. During the exhibit fabrication process, a prototype of the "Every Hero Has a Story" exhibit was featured in the Central Library Children's Department. This electronic story-making opportunity, in a slightly altered form, is now a permanent fixture in the museum's "Imagine It" space. Also featured at the DoSeum is a special version of San Antonio Public Library's digital wallpaper, which provides easy access to Ebooks for children.

CHILDREN'S (SYSTEM-WIDE)

Viki Ash and the children's librarians from SAPL's inner-city branches continue to work on strategies for serving children from low income neighborhoods more effectively. In addition to meeting individually with each of the inner-city children's librarians, Ash is working with two partner agencies for serving low-income children this summer. Ash is leading a book club for 9 to 12 year-olds as part of the Martinez Street Women's Center Girl Zone program at Lockwood Park and acting as a guest reader at San Antonio Youth Literacy's (SAYL's) Summer Reading Camp. The SAYL camps are being held at the Ella Austin Community Center and the Guadalupe Cultural Center.

The 2015 Mayor's Summer Reading Club began on June 1 with programming getting into full swing with the close of school on June 4. As of June 16, 4117 Listeners and 7653 Readers were registered, bringing the total to 11,776 children. Staff across the system will continue to recruit members to both clubs throughout the summer with children's librarians leading the way. The total registration number for summer 2014 was just over 30,000. Staff has every expectation of meeting – and exceeding that number this summer.

Three members of the children's staff will be attending the American Library Association Conference in San Francisco later this month. Xelena Gonzalez and Cori Sanchez, both from the Little Read Wagon team, are on the conference schedule to present practical advice and encouragement for serving teen parents and their babies. For the past several years, Xelena and Cori have been working extensively with teen parenting programs in multiple school districts to develop and implement early literacy programming for this special audience. Ash continues her work as a consultant to the literature award committees of the Association for Library Service to Children as those groups begin their deliberations in earnest at the conference.

TEENS (SYSTEM-WIDE)

Teen Summer Reading Program

Teen Summer Reading kicked off on June 1! The theme this year is Every Hero Has a Story, and teens can win a prize at the end of the program by reading books and participating in teen library events at any SAPL location. Every prize drawing card teens turn in earns them a chance to win the grand prize. The program will run through July 31, and the drawing is on Friday, August 7. The annual end-of-summer celebration will take place at the Central Library on Saturday, August 8, from 1 to 4pm. More information can be found on the Teen Summer 2015 LibGuide: <http://guides.mysapl.org/teensummer2015>.

Free Summer Lunches

The Central Library is participating in the San Antonio Food Bank's Summer Food Service Program again this year. For 10 years, the Library has partnered with the Food Bank to provide children and teens healthy lunches during the summer, when many kids and teens do not have access to school lunches anymore. The Central Library will give out lunches to children and teens, ages 1-18, Monday through Friday from 12:30-2:00pm through August 21. In addition, Memorial Library will serve free lunches Monday through Friday from 12:00-1:00pm through August 7.

TEENS

Weekly Programs

Mondays with J.D. Elizondo (Library Assistant): Elizondo continued his weekly Eclectic Electric program, in which teens learn to play guitar and/or keyboards. Teens can also teach their peers to play. After the music ends, teens sometimes engage in different weekly art or craft projects.

Tuesdays with Caroline Mossing (Librarian I): During the reporting period, Mossing hosted Science & Tech Tuesdays. With the recent move of the Teen Services Department to the third floor Teen Library Space came an increase in teens' access to the technology tools available to them. San Antonio teens now have the flexibility to try multiple activities within the normal program time, and have used this flexibility to explore 3D printing, create original 3D models using the SketchUp software, and use 3D pens to create freehand 3D models. Teens have also used the Cubelets modular robotics system to create simple robots and the LittleBits Korg synth kit to make electronic music. During program time, teens explored circuitry with the MaKey MaKey invention kit and the Circuit Scribe system, drawing connections between modules with conductive ink. Teens worked together to learn how to use new tools and software, and shared successes and hurdles.

Wednesdays with Kathleen Fordyce (Librarian II): On Wednesdays, teens pick their favorite video or board game and engage in friendly competition with their peers. In addition, teens have the opportunity to express their creative side by participating in craft or art projects of their choosing. During the reporting period, teens have enjoyed playing Minecraft on the PlayStation 4, the WiiU games, as well as board games like Chess, Apples to Apples and Jenga. The newest game added to the Teen Library was a ping pong table! The teens have been loving it and playing ping pong frequently, with some teaching others the skills and strategies.

Thursdays with Regina Almanza (Library Assistant): Peer interaction and encouragement, creative expression and friendly competition rank high on Thursday nights. During this reporting period, teens suggested ideas for tasty and imaginative crafts. To make chocolate bowls, teens blew up balloons, dipped the bottoms in melted chocolate and let them cool. Teens filled their chocolate bowls with a little fruit salad they made. From an idea seen on the Internet, teens wondered how many things they could make in a waffle maker. They used various ingredients to concoct a tasty treat in waffle form. The first Thursday of July was also most teens last day of school, which found them requesting a plethora of activities to do. Teens requested use of the ping pong table, board games, snacks, and video games. Switching to summer mode, after receiving and eating a free lunch from the San Antonio Food Bank, teens participated in mask-making, a teen-suggested activity. After Thursday programs have concluded, in a non-competitive environment, teens played video games. Pictures from Thursday programs as well as system-wide programs can be found at <http://www.flickr.com/210teenlibrary>. Some nights, photos and mini-videos are also posted to Teen Services' Instagram account: <https://instagram.com/210teenlibrary>.

Tours and Groups

On May 28, students and City Year volunteers from Martin Luther King Academy came for a tour of the new Teen Library and demonstrations of a few of the resources available to teens. Librarian I Caroline Mossing conducted a 3D printing demonstration and answered questions about the department's 3D printer, while Library Assistant J.D. Elizondo held an impromptu jam session/music lesson in the new Studio space. Teens also had access to a modular synthesizer kit as well as iMac computers.

CHILDREN'S

The Central Children's Department wrapped up the school year and kicked off the Summer Reading Program with many special events and tours. This month also saw the promotion of Children's Department Manager Ruth Chiego to the role of Central Library's Public Services Administrator and the assignment of Children's Department Assistant Manager Kate Simpson to the role of Interim Manager.

Tours

In partnership with the Southwest School of Art, the Central Children's Librarians, Ms. Kate Simpson and Ms. Jasmin Salinas, led tours focused on the art on display at the Central Library for 300 Bonham Academy students in kindergarten-second grades. The classes visited the Library and the Southwest School of Art in groups of twenty-five over the span of three days for a fun-filled art experience.

Seventy kindergarten students from Howard Early Childhood Center also visited the Central Library this month as a special treat where they learned all about the Summer Reading opportunities at the SAPL. The students enjoyed a Play & Learn program, made creations with play dough, tended a pretend garden, sold "ice cream" in an pretend play zone, created a hero shields to wear, and collaborated on a summer scene collage for display at their school.

Summer Reading Program Kickoff

The Mayor's Summer Reading Club was initiated with great fanfare as the Mayor Ivy Taylor's press conference was held in the Central Children's Department. The space was decorated by Central Children's Department staff with a cityscape in silhouette and colorful superhero posters that transformed the third floor into "Hero Headquarters." Ms. Salinas created two new superhero displays to highlight the picture and juvenile fiction books in the collection and the theme for the summer reading program "Every Hero Has A Story." The Summer Reading Kickoff Party was a great success as 140 children and parents enjoyed a variety of activities such as a superhero bean bag toss, Lego building challenges, superhero costume making and photo ops, crafts to take home, and snacks provided by Whataburger.

Summer Reading Activities

The Central Children's Department offered a fun children's program every day of the week as soon as summer began. Staff received many appreciative compliments about the Come & Go Crafts available Fridays-Mondays. The Bilingual Story Time led by Ms. Nohemi Lopez Rosdahl (Collection Development Librarian), was focused on family. After stories and songs, children made their own family tree. Two new LEGO Club programs were added to the calendar on Wednesdays and Thursdays. LEGO Club allows families with kids of all ages to come and create with LEGOs, DUPLOs, and blocks. An added bonus is that it provided staff with an opportunity to connect with families and encourage them to complete the Mayor's Summer Reading Club and attend other library activities during the summer. Kids Time on Saturdays focused on hero stories and included great stories, crafts and activities to help inspire children to read this summer.

Summer Reading Special Events

Tom Kinsey, a master naturalist for the Witte museum for twelve years, introduced children to some of his animal friends with an engaging and informative program for toddlers and their families. The children gasped in awe at the various animals Mr. Kinsey brought to share. Even better, every child in the room had the chance to see these animals up close and touch them. Everyone was given the opportunity to touch the rough scales of a snake, the sticky skin of a tree frog, the soft fur of the rats, the smooth feathers of a dove, and the hard shells of Madagascar hissing cockroaches.

The Children's Department saw more animal fun when Happy Tails Entertainment delighted the audience of families during their visit to the third floor. A variety of African animals, such as a lemur, a porcupine, a ball python, and a tortoise, were introduced. Children were thrilled to see live animals in the library and ecstatic to be able to pet some of them. Many books about animals were checked out that day, as families loaded up on wildlife stories and fact books to keep the animal fun alive at home.

LITTLE READ WAGON

Every Child Ready to Read Workshops for Parents

With end of year activities filling school calendars, Little Read Wagon did not schedule any Every Child Ready to Read workshops. There have been many requests for the coming school year.

Every Child Ready to Read Workshops for Teen Parents

Corinne Sanchez presented a workshop at Seton Home. The ongoing work with the residents includes training for the staff and interactive programs for the mothers and their children.

Programs to teen parents at area high schools continued through the last weeks of school. Campuses served this reporting period include Kennedy, Harlandale, Sam Houston, Lee, Memorial, East Central, San Antonio Can, South San, Academy of Creative Education, Stevens, McCollum and Taft. These final visits were also an opportunity to promote summer reading program participation.

Library Promotion

Cresencia Huff and Karen Sagun (Westfall) participated in Maverick Elementary School's Careers on Wheels Day. The event invited all students to visit with people from the community who use vehicles to do their jobs. Among those participating were the San Antonio Fire Department, San Antonio Police Department, UPS, HEB, several radio stations, Univisión, and the San Antonio Public Library with the VROOM.

Ms. Huff and Carol Collins (Pan American) participated in Adams Elementary's first annual literacy festival. The May 30 event was very well-attended with families coming to see their children perform skits, hear presentations from Xavier Garza and Rebecca Villagran, and participate in activities provided by several community agencies. The Library was placed next to Via so that participants could get information about transportation to area libraries and events.

Play & Learn

Summer Play & Learn is always busy and hot! The first two programs at McAllister Park were very well-attended with several families visiting the park joining in the fun. The first two programs at Martin Luther King Park were smaller, but still received with plenty of enthusiasm. Representatives from City of San Antonio Head Start had an information table at the June 11 program and plan to come out again.

Avance Home-Based Early Head Start requested a Play & Learn for their groups. The combined Little Read Wagon and branch schedules only allowed one group to be accommodated. The bilingual group gathered at the Bazan Branch Library where Children's Librarian Hope Sonnen told them about summer reading and encouraged the group to visit any San Antonio Public Library. Then the Little Read Wagon team engaged the families in several activities with the theme “Birds and Bugs.”

BRANCH LOCATIONS

BAZAN

The Mayor's Summer Reading Club had a great start at the Bazan Branch Library with many kids registering for the program. Children's Librarian Hope Sonnen added a LEGO's club program to her Kids Time and Come & Go Crafts, which attracted a good number of participants. Ms. Sonnen participated in the Spring into Summer Fair sponsored by the Guadalupe Cultural Arts Center. She saw about 30 kids and 30 adults and talked about the Summer Reading program as well as other programs held at Bazan.

On May 20, Bazan hosted AACOG in presenting a program for citizens to learn more about the STAR+PLUS Medicare - Medicaid Plan. There were 25 patrons who dropped in for this daylong event. The branch also hosted another AARP TEK (Technology, Experience, and Knowledge) class on June 3. The first session was entitled Intro to Tablets, which introduced the basics of tablets to participants with very little experience using that type of device. Beyond the Basics: Tablets was the title of the second session which taught tips and tricks that will improve the participant's TEK skills. Both the TEK teaching crew and participants were very happy with both sessions, which were well attended.

The STD/HIV Outreach Team of COSA's Metro Health Department was held at Bazan on May 28 to provide confidential testing and to share information. In June, this outreach effort by Metro Health will begin taking their van around the various neighborhoods in Bazan service area.

The Learn Center space continues to be improved with the ultimate goal of better responding to patrons' needs. A job board organized by occupational categories has been placed in the entrance to the Center and there was a significant increase in learners during the month of May. Currently, Beginners ESL and Advanced ESL classes are being offered.

On May 22, Learn Training Officer Emily Sauer attended a meeting with the Director of SAISD Adult and Community Education Program and was invited to speak at New Student Orientation in August. On May 23, Mrs. Sauer attended the Alamo Colleges Adult Learner College and Workforce Training Center Career and Resource Fair. The attendance was quite useful in that she learned about GED and technical training programs available through Alamo Colleges. Since attending the event, several learners have expressed interest in and been referred to the programs. Along with Children's Librarian Hope Sonnen, Mrs. Sauer attended the Spring into Summer Teach for America Fair on May 27 and provided information about the Learn Center to Elementary School-aged children's parents.

On June 4, Mrs. Sauer met with Alma Ayala, the East Central ISD Family and Community Services Liaison, who was extremely interested in the work of the Learn Centers. She asked Mrs. Sauer to speak to a large class in session of ESL students and will publicize the Learn Centers in the next issue of the school district's newspaper. The students expressed interest in the Learn Center's programs and resources, as the school district does not have any summer programming.

BROOK HOLLOW

Brook Hollow Branch Library celebrated Asian/Pacific American Heritage Month with a musical performance on May 23. This event, Violins & Vocals, featured Northside Music School students. On May 24, Brook Hollow hosted its first monthly Game Day. Inspired by the web series "TableTop," this program features a variety of board games, card games, and dice games for patrons to play. Standard and designer games are on offer, and staff members are available to teach unfamiliar games to interested patrons. Book discussion groups continue to be popular at Brook Hollow. Recent titles discussed include "Enigma of China" by Qui Xiaolong, "Lobo" by Nieves Hidalgo, and "Liar, Temptress, Soldier, Spy: Four Women Undercover in the Civil War" by Karen Abbott.

Children's Librarian Rachael Barrera visited three elementary schools in May and June to help promote the Summer Reading program. On May 21, she spoke with 350 kids in the library at Harmony Hills Elementary. On May 26, she visited the library at Thousand Oaks Elementary where she spoke with groups from the entire school totaling 700 students. On June 2, Ms. Barrera visited Coker Elementary and addressed the entire school by video during the morning announcements.

Children's Summer Reading is off to a strong start at the branch. So far, Kids Time is better attended than in years past. Young Brook Hollow patrons have learned about dog heroes and problem solving heroes during two Kids Time programs.

All story times continue to be extremely popular. So far, the branch continues to beat its own records with this summer's attendance higher than last year's for the same time period.

Children at the Brook Hollow Branch are enthusiastic about signing up for the Summer Reading Club and the branch is looking forward to another successful year of Summer Reading.

Children were able to browse displays about princesses (in honor of Princess Charlotte's birth) and beginning chapter books for those just beginning to graduate to longer books after first grade, or when they are ready.

Brook Hollow's Teen Time took a break from spring programming the last two weeks of May to plan and prepare programming for the summer. Some of the upcoming activities that teens are looking forward to include duct tape crafts, making magnets, discussing Manga and Anime titles, viewing films and playing board games.

CARVER

Carver Branch Library Manager D.L. Grant was among the guests invited to participate in career day activities at S.J. Davis Middle School. He spoke to more than one hundred students about opportunities for them to consider once they complete high school, including careers with the City of San Antonio. "It's never too early to plan," Grant urged. He also used the venue as an opportunity to promote library services, including teen activities held weekly at the branch.

Carver Children's Librarian Jodi Miller also attended area career day events. She spoke at Booker T. Washington and W.W. White elementary schools, where she plugged the library's Summer Reading Program. Carver Library had a Summer Reading kickoff on Saturday, June 6 with 24 people in attendance.

Assistant Manager Monty Holcomb hosted five Teen Time events with the Wii, as well as four chess events. He also threw a teen pizza party, where he invited guests to share their ideas for future activities. In June, he returned to the District 2 Senior Center, where he continued the Mayor's Book Club group. The Friends of Carver Branch voted to support the branch's Adult Summer Reading Program by donating items that could be offered as incentives to bolster participation. President Shirley Coleman added that the book nook which was installed last March at Carver continues to attract customers and generate generous proceeds.

CODY

Children's Librarian Sheila Acosta was busy visiting elementary schools to promote the Mayor's Summer Reading Club during the last two weeks of May. Acosta met with students, teachers and a few parents at ten elementary schools in the Cody Branch Library service area.

Tweens enjoyed an end-of-the-school-year party on June 1. Table-top gaming and snacks were enjoyed by all who attended.

Acosta hosted Cody's Summer Reading Kick-off on June 4. Children and families gathered in the children's area to create and decorate superhero masks, shields, and wrist cuffs. Most of the children wore their favorite superhero t-shirts to the event, and each received a snack. Both children and adults signed up for the summer reading programs.

Lego Club got off to a great start on June 5 with 30 children in attendance. Library Intern Anita Shaw hosted the summer event for the school-aged children.

Tweens were introduced to the artwork of artist/illustrator Barney Saltzberg during Tween Time on June 8. On June 11, David Pitt, better known as "Captain Cartoon," entertained Cody families for the first Thrilling Thursday's Kids Time! His talents as a ventriloquist, magician and artist were enjoyed by all ages. Acosta reminded children to sign up for Summer Reading after the show.

Several new children attended Lego Club the second week on June 12. The space theme was a popular one with the children. Anita handed out prizes to the top three teams, and displayed all of the teams' Lego creations in the New Books area.

Kalalaya Performing Arts presented the classical Indian dance Bharatanatyam on May 30 to over 60 people. The library received several comments on how much people appreciated and enjoyed the program.

The polls at Cody were busy during early voting for the Mayoral run-off election with 5,874 votes cast. During Cody's Tabletop Gaming Saturdays, children and adults have enjoyed stretching their imaginations with Dixit, being the best zombie in Zombie Dice and defending their castle in Castle Panic. Everyone has enjoyed taking a couple of hours out of their days to make new friends and having fun.

On June 11, the Cody Library hosted Holocaust survivor Suzanne Jalnos as part of the library's Learn and Remember series. Mrs. Jalnos shared her heart wrenching personal story with a crowd of 60. Many attendees were moved enough to commemorate the event by taking self-portraits with Mrs. Jalnos.

Teens have enjoyed a variety of activities for Teen Tuesday. Library Assistant J. D. Elizondo brought his guitars and keyboard to teach teens some musical skills. Teens have also been treated to movies and special crafts.

COLLINS GARDEN

Collins Garden Branch Library has been hosting numerous tours and outreach programs from the local schools. As the school year wound down, the teachers brought their students to Collins Garden Branch Library to remind them that reading does not end in June, but should continue throughout summer vacation. Additionally, even though Collins Garden is being prepared for the major makeover, outreach to daycares and childhood centers continues and will continue during the closure period.

Staff members have extensively weeded the entire collection in preparation for the renovation as there will be fewer shelves in order to accommodate a computer Connect area, as well as juvenile and teen areas.

The branch was an early voting and election day site for the runoff election and there was a steady stream of citizens who came to vote.

CORTEZ

The Citizenship Class is ending this month, but another session will begin on August 2. ENCINO

Patrons of Encino Branch Library checked out Collaborate 22 times during the reporting period, utilizing the space for distance interviews, group collaborations, brainstorming sessions, and distance education. The technology in the space has received rave reviews, and Barbara Kwiatkowski provided Collaborate technology training for two patrons during the reporting period. Patron feedback has also included kudos for providing a private and professional meeting space. Patrons continue to express interest in establishing Encino as a destination by voicing daily requests for a playground, picnic area, adult fitness equipment, and comfortable outdoor furniture.

Encino's partnership with Parks & Recreation: Fitness in the Park has proven successful, with over 20 adult patrons attending Zumba on the Patio and over 30 patrons of all ages attending the Martial Arts program. Martial Arts will continue in the meeting room on Monday afternoons, while Zumba will take a break for the hot summer months.

She also presented a monthly Story Time to two groups of children (each group was a combination of two classes) at Respite Care, a child care facility for developmentally disabled children. Books were left for each of five classes. In addition, she presented a special monthly story time at the library for some of the children who live at Respite Care's shelter facility.

On June 6, a group of children enjoyed creating with LEGOs on LEGO Day at the Library. After discussing summer themes with the children, Betsy challenged them to build something related to summer. The children created swimming pools, beach scenes, and other related creations.

During the last two weeks in May, Ms. Dalton spoke to 450 students at Cotton Elementary School, 550 students at Hawthorne AC, 700 students at Rogers Elementary School, and a second grade class at Bonham Academy promoting the Children's Summer Reading Program and the various activities at the library.

On May 21, Ms. Dalton attended the library-sponsored all day leadership training at Mission Library.

During this period, Ms. Dalton facilitated monthly book discussions at Monte Vista Montessori (4th) and Hawthorne Academy (4th and 5th grades) book clubs. The book clubs have 12-13 members each. The book clubs meet during the students' lunch period in the school library where the books read the previous month are discussed. In addition, Ms. Dalton also facilitates the Great Hearts 4th grade book club which meets monthly at the library.

Monte Vista Montessori brings approximately 25 students once a month to the library. These students range in age from seven to eleven, grades 1 through 4. When the class comes to the library, the Children's Librarian spends approximately thirty minutes with the students, suggesting books and helping them navigate the Dewey Decimal system, place holds, use the catalog and databases, and locate materials.

Starting in June, Minecraft Club will meet weekly on Mondays; Crazy 8's Math Club for Kindergarten through 3rd grade will meet weekly on Tuesdays; Kids Time for Kindergarten through 5th grade will meet weekly on Wednesdays; Beginning Readers Club and LEGO Club will meet on Thursdays. Other special programming included Happy Tails Entertainment, which delighted a large group of children and their adults.

On June 4, Ms. Dalton presented a program in Spanish at the library for the Southside Home based Avance parents regarding things the parents can do to help their children in their early literacy goals. On June 11, Ms. Dalton attended the final City Of San Antonio Head Start Speakers Series event on bilingual education and dual language learners.

Branch Manager Diane Backhus will be presenting story time to the children at San Pedro Springs Pool beginning the week of June 15. This partnership is in conjunction with the Parks & Recreation Department. She is working with Hank Arredondo to present a short program to the children. They will be invited to visit the branch: get a library card; sign up for the Summer Reading Program, and take advantage of other great opportunities at the library!

SEMMES

The Semmes Yu-Gi-Oh! Dueling group continues to have a great many enthusiastic participants. The group of Teens and Young Adults meet on the first and third Sundays of each month. There are usually between 15 and 20 attendees for each event. The group has also been flexible with where they meet in the library, due to being relocated several times because of Early Voting at the branch.

Children's Librarian Randi Jones visited Steubing Ranch Elementary on May 27 and 28. She spoke to over 900 students about the Mayor's Summer Reading Club.

A new Cartoon class started on May 30. Attendance at the first meeting was small, but staff is hoping that attendance will build throughout the summer. The next class is scheduled for June 20.

The Semmes Branch hosted Early Voting for the Mayoral run-off election from June 1-9. 3,755 people cast their ballot at Semmes. The branch was the fifth busiest site in the County, and the fourth busiest library site.

The Friends of the Semmes Branch Library held their summer book sale on June 12 and 13. They received a great many donations from the community and had a very successful sale, raising over $1600.00. Recently the Friends have purchased many items for the branch, including three new book carts, a step ladder, Legos for the new Lego program beginning in June and many easel stands and display materials.

THOUSAND OAKS

Summer Reading is off to a fast and busy start at Thousand Oaks Branch Library! The branch had a snow cone kick-off party on June 3 to officially start Summer Reading! About 60 children, teens and adults signed up for Summer Reading and enjoyed a tasty, cool treat!

Thousand Oaks is offering five weekly programs for children this summer -- Lego Time, Kids Time, Toddler Time, Story Time and Come and Go Crafts. There's something for everyone!

Happy Tails Entertainment performed at Thousand Oaks on June 10. One of the largest crowds ever at Thousand Oaks -- more than 300 kids and adults -- saw a lemur, snake, tortoise, porcupine and hedgehog! The kids were also able to pet the snake and tortoise!

Teens at Thousand Oaks have been exploring their creativity through the use of clay. On May 20, Teens created imaginative clay characters to star in a stop motion animation movie! You can watch their movie featuring Little Kitty on the Teen Services blog. The next week, Teens asked for the clay again, once they wore themselves out playing Dance Dance Revolution. Teens celebrated the start of the Summer Reading Program by making their own ice cream, experimenting with fruity flavors and shaking their way to frozen treats. Clay once again made an appearance on movie night, with Teens making Baymax figures out of Model Magic, as well as some other unique clay creations (pictures available on the Teen Services Flickr page).

The Thursday Afternoon Book Club enjoyed discussing The Jane Austen Book Club by Karen Joy Fowler. Jane Austen fans in the book club liked how this modern novel about relationships drew on Austen's classics.

The Friends of the Thousand Oaks Library held a book sale on June 6. A variety of great items were donated by the community for the bi-annual sale. Once again the book sale makes money enough to sponsor programming and other Thousand Oaks needs for fall.

The Thousand Oaks Library was a voting site for the Mayoral run-off. Elections always bring new faces to the branch and staff enjoyed meeting and greeting our civically engaged community residents.

Vital Records sales at the Thousand Oaks branch are picking up steam! Summer brings the highest sales number because of preparation for school registration and summer sports. The Thousand Oaks Staff is working hard cranking them and answering a multitude of phone calls a day!

TOBIN AT OAKWELL

Tobin Branch Library employees, kids and parents warmly welcomed Children's Librarian Elvira Sanchez Kisser on May 18. Ms. Sanchez Kisser relocated with her family back to San Antonio from Oregon and brings a wealth of experience working with not only children, but patrons of all ages. Additionally, Kathleen Marascio, Soudabeh Arvin and Irene Gonzalez began shelving as Library Aides just in time for the end of the school year and busy summer months.

The branch hosted Early Voting for the Mayor's race as well as Election Day on June 13. Turnout was heavier for the run-off than the original casting and saw many folks checking out materials and inquiring about library services.

100 kids from George Gervin Academy came to visit the branch and hear about Summer Reading on May 18 and 19. Children made Captain American shields and super hero arm bands related to the "Every Hero has a Story" summer theme. Likewise on May 27, over 100 kids and parents from Wilshire Elementary's reading program came for a tour, checked out books and learn how to participate in summer reading and library programs.

All employees assisted with the planning and hosting for the end of school year party for teens on May 21. 165 kids enjoyed the celebration with foods they had selected - nachos, cake pops, pizza and fruit. Summer reading for all ages kicked off on June 6 with activities including a special Trivia Wheel, face painting, crafts, and games of bean bag attack and pin the star on Captain America's shield. Everyone savored the x-ray vision carrots, Thor hammers, Mr. Freeze snow cones, Kryptonite punch and other unique power snacks.

Friends of the Tobin Library at Oakwell held a very successful book sale on May 22 – 23. The bag sale now requires a Tobin bag be purchased to participate in the last hour of the sale where attendees fill the bag for $5.

Librarian and Assistant Manager, Rhonda Woolhouse, has been weeding media materials and adult fiction for condition and circulation. Similarly, Ms. Sanchez Kissler has initiated portions of the juvenile areas as well. Special displays this period incorporate urban fiction, Memorial Day, new cook books, gardening, Truth or Mystery?, Fairy Tale and Super Heroes and The Holocaust.

WESTFALL

Summer Reading Program is off to a great start at Westfall Branch Library. Staff is working hard to get children, teens and adults registered for the program.

Beginning June 1, the branch began hosting Teen Tuesday each Tuesday and Kids Time each Wednesday. These events will continue through the summer. Teen liaison Karen Sagun organized a teen advisory group to plan the summer's activities. The group decided to focus on super heroes and summer movies.

There is one sad thing to report, Westfall's Learn Center training officer Deborah Carter resigned to take a librarian's job in San Marcos. In the meantime, DHS social worker Lindsay Minarovic and DHS intern Eva Pesta, along with assistance from the training officers from Carver, Cortez and Bazan branches have been assisting patrons and teaching classes.

Librarian II Jernell Williams attended Building the Leadership Competence and Confidence of SAPL's Assistant Managers.

Children's Librarian Imelda Merino attended the Principal's Coffee at Wilson Elementary School and make outreach visits to Maverick and Colonial Hills elementary schools.

Branch Manager Sherrie Hardin led the Third Thursday Book Group's discussion of Burial Rites by Hannah Kent. Since the book is based on true events that took place in Iceland, Sherrie put together a Powerpoint presentation to show the group locations and settings of the events.
