

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT SAPL
MAY 2016

LEARN & REMEMBER

This annual observance is a commemoration and remembrance of the Holocaust. The 2016 theme, Children of War, focuses on the experiences of children during the war and beyond. Programs and discussions throughout May will offer opportunities to hear first-hand accounts from local child survivors, and learn more about the experience from local and national presenters and scholars. Join us for the opening program at the Holocaust Memorial Museum San Antonio on Mon., 5/2 at 10am (12500 NW Military Hwy., 78231).

SMALL BUSINESS MONDAY

National Small Business Week recognizes the critical contributions of America's entrepreneurs and small business owners to the nation's economy. Our Small Business Week Conference, Mon. 5/2, 9am-5pm, Central will help you learn about starting and running a small business with speakers from Café Commerce, the Small Business Administration, and the Women's Business Center. Meet other local small business owners and learn about local resources to help your business thrive.

 San Antonio Public Library and Alamo Workforce Solutions are teaming up to bring a community job fair to your neighborhood. Come dressed to impress with résumés in hand. There will be several local employers looking to hire. Don't miss this great opportunity to find a new job or career!

PLAY & LEARN: HOW DOES YOUR GARDEN GROW?

Let's talk, sing, read, write and play about gardening this spring. A little pretending, a little exploring and a little planting are in store for kids and their grown-ups at this special Play & Learn program. This program is recommended for children ages five and under. For a full calendar of Play & Learn events and other events especially for children, visit mysapl.org.

All locations will be closed Monday, May 30 for Memorial Day.
